

Third Grade Newsletter

Week of September 18, 2023

ANNOUNCEMENT/ REMINDERS

WestFest: We can't wait for WestFest this Friday and Saturday. Come enjoy the community, games, rides and delicious food. Details about shirts, wristbands and punch cards can be found in the eFc. We can't wait to see you there!

Picture Day: Individual picture day is tomorrow, Tuesday, September 19th. Students are welcome to wear free dress or their uniform for individual pictures.

MAPS Testing: We begin MAPS testing this week. Please be sure your child has a healthy breakfast each morning and arrives to school on time. MAPs testing will continue for the next 3 weeks.

Magazine Sale: Keep selling those magazines. Our goal is to have 100% participation. Thanks for helping support our school.

Take home folder (red): Please make sure you are checking your child's folder every night. It is important they bring it back to school every day.

Star of the week: Ainsley
Star Next week : Cecilia

This week we are learning:

READING: We read "The Trial of Cardigan Jones" and learn to infer and draw conclusions using details from the text.

READING LOGS: Students have a September reading log that should be kept at home. The goal is to read 20 minutes most nights!.

LANGUAGE ARTS: We review adjectives and practice writing juicy sentences. We also use this time take the MAPS language test.

MATH: We continue our chapter on place value. This week we focus on rounding to the nearest ten and hundred.

SOCIAL STUDIES: We review the seven continents and five oceans. We also learn some interesting facts about each continent.

SCIENCE: We begin learning about different animal life cycles

RELIGION: Students learn about the Creation story and make creation comics.

Homework

Most nights students will have a math sheet.
It will be in their red folder and will be written in their planner.